SCHOOL PLAY – ALICE IN WONDERLAND

The student led and directed play, Alice in Wonderland, has only three more shows. Friday, Monday, and Tuesday nights are your last chance to see this production. The students have worked very hard and learned so much. They would greatly appreciate your support and coming to see their talents. If interested, please purchase tickets via School Cash On Line.

2024 – 2025 STUDENT TIMETABLE CONFIRMATION

All returning students and parents will be getting an email on Monday, June 10th in the afternoon with the courses they are programmed into for the 2024-25 school year. In that email will be a list of courses and instructions for how to request a course change. The window of time for requesting a change will be short (change requests must be submitted by Wednesday, June 12 at 3:00 PM). Please remember, that not all requests will be possible (the timetable is very tight). If requesting a course change, you must print off the Form that is emailed home, explain what you want to change and why, and get a parent to sign the form before submitting to the office.

GRAD ASSESSMENTS

The next sitting of the graduation assessments is June 11 and 12. All grade 10 students will be registered for the GNA 10. If any student is missing an assessment for graduation, please see Ms. Poon ASAP. The information about when and where students is writing the assessment is posted outside the office.

YEAR-END MUSIC CONCERT

Please be reminded of the Year-End Spring Music Concert, happening on Wednesday, June 12th at 7:00 PM in the Old Gym. Please come on out to listen to our tremendously talented musicians as they showcase the talents they have developed under the guidance and inspirational leadership of Music teacher Mr. Ryan Naso. We hope to see you there!

UPCOMING DATES TO REMEMBER
