Midterm Learning Updates

Semester 1 Midterm Learning Updates were published on the My Education BC Parent Portal on November 20. If you did not receive your child's learning update or were unable to access it, please contact the school office by email for assistance.

Along with the learning updates, parents should have also received their child's recent Core Competency reflections and goals. Students are asked to reflect on their growth and set goals three times each year. All parents are encouraged to review both the Learning Updates and reflections with their child.
